Us

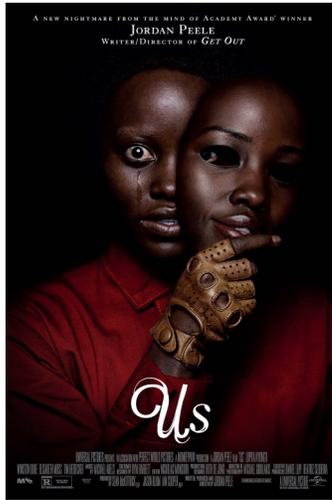

Rating: R (for violence/terror, and language)

Genre: Horror, Mystery & Suspense

Written & Directed By: Jordan Peele

In Theaters: Mar 22, 2019

Runtime: 120 minutes

Haunted by an unexplainable and unresolved trauma from her past and compounded by a string of eerie coincidences, Adelaide feels her paranoia elevate to high-alert as she grows increasingly certain that something bad is going to befall her family. After spending a tense beach day with their friends, the Tylers (Emmy winner Elisabeth Moss, Tim Heidecker, Cali Sheldon, Noelle Sheldon), Adelaide and her family return to their vacation home. When darkness falls, the Wilsons discover the silhouette of four figures holding hands as they stand in the driveway. Us puts an endearing American family against a terrifying and uncanny opponent: doppelgängers of themselves. - Rotten Tomatoes

Grading Scale

- 1 - Wouldn't recommend it
- 2 - Check it out if you want
- 3 - I don't love or hate it
- 4 - I liked it was pretty good
- 5 - I loved it and can't stop talking about it

Britney Kiki, Harlem Renaissance HS, Senior c/o 2019 -"The acting was phenomenal but there were scenes that didn't correlate with each other and didn't contribute substantially to the over theme of the movie. When I walked away, I wanted to know more about what was being portrayed, what the hidden messages were. People in the theater really enjoyed the comedic breaks, throughout, theater would burst out into laughter. I would recommend the movie to my classmates if they're into suspenseful movies with underlining themes and messages."

Kevin Daniels, LTW Program Manager -" Initially, I was concerned with the expectations for movie because 'Get Out' was such a hit but Jordan Peele delivered. The movie kept me thinking and reevaluating each character and the movies hidden messages. There were many twist and turns but the action picked up almost immediately. There wasn't much wasted picture time with build up. Essentially the movie leaves you asking many follow up questions, thinking through several layers yearning to connect the dots."
