Avengers: Endgame

Rating: PG -13

Genre: Action & Adventure, Drama, Science Fiction & Fantasy

Written & Directed By: Joe Russo, Anthony Russo

In Theaters: Apr 26, 2019

Runtime: 182 minutes

Kniya VanPelt, Harlem Renaissance HS, Senior c/o 2019 - "Avengers: Endgame is a great movie for those who are big fans of Marvel or superhero movies. I do not recommend it to those who are unfamiliar with the Marvel Cinematic Universe, because you will be lost. Endgame kicks right off with what happened after Infinity War, and made many references back to the movies preceding it. There was an appearance of many loved characters, and it ended with a battle that will be talked about for many years. I cannot wait to watch Spiderman: Far From Home!

Pet Sematary

Rating: R

Genre: Horror

Written & Directed By: Kevin Kölsch, Dennis Widmyer, Jeff Buhler, Matt Greenberg

In Theaters: Apr 5, 2019

Runtime: 101 minutes

Britney Kiki, Harlem Renaissance HS, Senior c/o 2019 - "As a lover of all films horror, this movie was definitely worth the watch. Although the premise of the movie was a bit cheesy, the acting, plot twists and unanticipated jump scares made the movie memorable and fun to watch with my friend. The only thing I disliked was the lack of lighting due to the setting of certain scenes solely because I had to strain to make out what was going on in the dark. Lighting aside, horror fans looking for something unusual who dislike slasher movies can't go wrong with this one!"

Kniya VanPelt, Harlem Renaissance HS, Senior c/o 2019 - "Pet Sematary was a chilling remake of a Stephen King Classic. Those of you who love horror better hold onto your seats! This movie weaved together the perfect horror movie mood, with amazing and chilling imagery that will take you for a ride. The cast, music, and production quality were top tier and the skill of how artistically this movie was put together will leave viewers on the edge of their seats. I will definitely be watching again.
